ALL DAY RECEPTION

Given Tuesday by Mrs. Cubbon and Mrs. Harrison.

HYPATIA'S ANNUAL PICNIC

Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Taylor
 Given a Surprise.

One of the very pretty and successful social affairs of the week was the Fourth of July reception tendered by Mesdames J. D. Harrison and George T. Cubbon. This took place at the residence of Mrs. Harrison on Seventeenth street. There was a long list of invited guests and all of them were present at one or the other of the occasions. In the afternoon the guests assembled and spent that part of the day very pleasantly with music, cards and dancing. At 6:30 all the party were called to the lawn, where four long tables were spread and refreshments served to the company. This service was attended by the following ladies: Mesdames Winkler, Race, Cubbon and the Misses Florence Cubbon, Schand and Race. After the reception the guests scattered about the rooms of the house and the lawn and a general good time resulted. Through the evening there was music by a string band and dancing in the house, and every effort was made by the hostesses to make this occasion one not soon forgotten. There was no attempt for conversationality, and all the guests took part in the entertainment with a free, lively interest, which made of the occasion a very pretty affair. The list of invited guests was as follows: Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Race, Henry Schand, George Schand, Carpenter, Wheeler, Reiff, Moore, Spencer, Sherard, Kles, Hersey, Oeschel, Beck, Van Peit, D. S. Howe, Childs, Wenschel, Winkler, "Safe," Charlie Mahoney, George T. Cubbon and Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Wagner of Pittsburg, Dr. and Mrs. Kirby of Arkansas City, Mrs. Earle, and Messrs. Frank Russell, Elmer Reese, Dr. Barth and Charlie Higelow, Ray Cubbon, Art Race, Ray Carpenter, and Misses Della Schand and Florence Cubbon.

DANCE AT MULVANE.
 A party of young people, consisting of Messrs. R. Elvort and J. Stewart and the Misses Nellie Cox of Paris, Texas, Edith Peckham and Edna Edmonson, attended a social dance at Mulvane on the night of the Fourth. A very enjoyable time was had and the party returned Wednesday morning. The young folks were chaperoned by Mrs. Edmonson of South Lawrence.

Miss Nellie Woods entertained at her home on Washington avenue, July 4. Those present were: Misses Fitzpatrick, Little Fitzpatrick, Laura Newell, Bessie Woods, Messrs. Fred Hemmers, Milton Barringer, Owen Newell, George Newell.

HYPATIA'S ANNUAL PICNIC.
 The Hypatia club held the annual picnic last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Collins on South Hydraulic. Counting the children, there were sixty people present, and the occasion was a most informally enjoyable one. All of those appetizing things to eat which are the accompaniment of picnics, salads, cake, fried chicken, coffee and ice cream, were served to the guests, who sat at the long tables spread under the trees. The picnic this year was the nature of a rejoicing at the restoration to health of Mrs. Collins, who was so dangerously ill last winter. The many expressions of affection and esteem from her friends must have warmed her heart and assured her of the regard which an unselfish nature inspires. Of the gentlemen present there were Mr. Collins, Ex-Governor Leavelle, Mr. Delamater and Mr. Warner. The children present ranged in age from 14 years to 2 months. If the pessimistic editor of the Eagle could have seen the number of Hypatia babies he would probably regret some of the many prophecies he has made about the club woman and the baby.

SOCIAL MASQUERADE.
 Master Donald Payne gave a masquerade party to his young friends on the evening of July 4 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Payne, 214 Hewitt avenue, West Side. The following were present: Misses Jesse Lyons, Anna Kles, Ethel Cox, Kittle Hill, Pearl Barrows, Gertrude Garrison, Rhoda Carney, Virgie Carney, Katie Stanton, Fern Randall, Masters Herbert Smith, Walter Storer, Tom Stanton, Roy Riley and Walter Bachtel.

PYRAMID SOCIAL.
 A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was enjoyed by the members of Wichita Council No. 25, Ancient Order of the Pyramids and their friends at their council hall, corner Topeka and Douglas avenues on last Thursday evening, July 7. In spite of the threatening weather a large crowd gathered to enjoy the program and a delicious lunch which had been prepared for them. The royal medical examiner, C. S. McClintock, was present and took charge of the installation of the officers. The Pyramids is one of the largest and best organized fraternal orders in the city.

SURPRISE DR. AND MRS. TAYLOR.
 One of the most enjoyable social events of the season took place at the residence of Dr. O. J. Taylor on last Thursday evening. Mrs. Taylor and the doctor were away from home and upon their return at about 9 o'clock they found that their home had been taken possession of by members of Peerless Degree of Honor No. 6, of which Mrs. Taylor is the chief of honor. As soon as the surprise that the presence of the guests had caused had subsided Mrs. Taylor was presented with a beautiful chair as a token of esteem by the lodge. Elegant refreshments were served by the ladies of the Degree of Honor, after which the evening was spent with music and a social good time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miller, Snyder, King, Little, Seal, Duncan, Grimes, McCrary, Kasson, Busebark, Choteau, Beers, Fordyce, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Minnick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Minnick, Mrs. Crooksey and Christopher, Misses Gant and Willhair.

 Sunflowers and Laurels.
 George Dickson has picked up somewhere a fine poem in which Fred Funston and the Kansas sunflower figures. It is as follows:

About this season regular, as each new year comes 'round,
 My brother writes me, 'bout the crops an' seeds
 He lives in Kansas, he does, an' he likes
 That first rate state.
 I got a letter to-day along with bran' new seeds.
 Consume me if I don't believe he'll soon
 He wrote me amongst other things that's
 And said he'd planted laurel with the sunflowers this year.

Wall, I wrote back to the darned old fool,
 Askin' what he meant.
 An' suggested that his money an' his time
 He better spent;
 I told him when he moved that that he
 War an awful ass.
 But I never had suspected things ud come
 To such a pass;
 I asked ud he wuz drinkin' or a playin'
 Uv the wheel.
 Er wuz up agin a sure thing in a wild-
 Swat bunko deal.
 An' I stated that I wanted him to write
 An' make it clear;
 Why he wuz plantin' laurel with the sun-
 Flowers this year.

When the next mail came from Kansas, a
 Letter came for me.
 It wuz in my brother's writin', an' Jerry Sez, say he:
 "You old web-footed moss-back, you are
 Clean knocked out uv date.
 Why don't you come to Kansas, whar we Ain't never vegetate."
 An' you heard uv ol' Manila, an' the Fight at Calocan?
 Wall, amongst them gallant Kansans wuz
 He fit through all the trouble, an' he Never knew a fear.
 That's why I'm plantin' laurel with the
 Sunflowers this year.

Continuin' his letter, he said, "Mind you,
 Brother Bill,
 That's a heap uv Kansas furrows that
 The laurel seeds 'll fill.
 Fer the boys hev fit like vetrens; they're
 An' honor to the land.
 An' you can hear their praises belin' sung
 On every hand;
 So you'd better plant some laurel; you'll Need it after while.
 Fer all God snare or comin' home, an'
 Comin' home in style.
 Now, Bill, be quick an' plant it, fer the Boys 'll soon be here.
 That's why I'm plantin' laurel with the
 Sunflowers this year."

Now, I've quit a knockin' Kansas, an' my Face is scratched in smiles.
 Since I've heard about that Danny in them
 Far Pacific Isles.
 Fer thar must be other Dannees that are Equally as brave.
 So like the Kansas fathers I will not Get in save.
 A place to plant them seeds that Jerry
 Sent me 'tother day.
 Cuz why? Ah, cuz I've got to fer that
 Boy that's gone away.
 An' if he comes to visit I'll say, look thar,
 Danny, dear,
 Your uncle's planted laurel with the sun-
 Flowers this year.

City ticket agents of the various railroads say the rush to western resorts has commenced and they are kept very busy.
 The through trains passing Wichita are also crowded.

Doc Sawyer and George Bergerman recently met George Gray in St. Louis.
 Gray did not recognize either of them, and they had to tell him their names. Gray now lives in Hot Springs, Arkansas.
